

Dr. Beth Banks Cohn

Intro:

Ladies and Gentlemen,

Now it is my privilege to introduce you to a woman whose passion for Israel and her community knows no bounds.

She is a trusted adviser, who is the founder and president of Adra Change Architects, a consulting firm dedicated to helping individuals and organizations reach their full business potential.

She is a courageous advocate for Israel, who has been active with Jewish National Fund-USA since 2013. She is a member of Makor, our JNF-USA ambassador group, and has been involved with Jewish National Fund-USA initiatives such as Special in Uniform, LOTEM, and ALEH Negev. She has also previously spent five years in Israel, including two serving in the Israel Defense Forces.

Ladies and Gentlemen, please welcome a woman whose professional and academic achievements are only matched by her support for Jewish National Fund-USA, Dr. Beth Banks Cohn.

100-word bio:

Dr. Beth Banks Cohn is the founder and president of the ADRA Change Architects consulting firm. She is a passionate advocate for the Jewish community and for Israel who spent five years living in Israel and two years serving in the Israel Defense Forces in both the IDF Spokesman's Office and the GADNA (youth corps). Cohn has been active with Jewish National Fund-USA (JNF-USA) since 2013, serving as the Chair of the MAKOM Task Force and as a member of Makor, JNF-USA's ambassador group.

50-word bio:

Dr. Beth Banks Cohn is founder and president of the Adra Change Architects consulting firm. Cohn has been active with Jewish National Fund-USA (JNF-USA) since 2013, serving as the Chair of the MAKOM Task Force and as a member of Makor, JNF-USA's ambassador group.